Call to Worship

We gather praising God who has blessed us with manifold blessings!

The day of Pentecost has come and we have gathered together in this place.

You created us out of the dust, O Lord. Send forth your presence and grant us your mercies and love.

Most High God, reign down your Spirit that we, too, may prophesy!

Glory to God who sends forth his Spirit! Glory to God who renews the face of the earth.

Jesus Christ, reign down your Spirit that we, too, may see visions!

May the glory of the Lord endure forever! May the Most High God rejoice in his works.

Eternal God, reign down your Spirit that we, too, may dream dreams!

Praise the Lord! Praise the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit;

Praise the Lord! Amen

Philippians 3:12-16 NIV

¹² Not that I have already obtained all this, or have already arrived at my goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus took hold of me. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself yet to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, ¹⁴ I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

Following Paul's Example

¹⁵ All of us, then, who are mature should take such a view of things. And if on some point you think differently, that too God will make clear to you. ¹⁶ Only let us live up to what we have already attained.

Isaiah 43:18-20 NIV

¹⁸ “Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
¹⁹ See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland.
²⁰ The wild animals honor me,
the jackals and the owls,
because I provide water in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland,
to give drink to my people, my chosen

Pentecost marks the end and completion of the Easter season, and the birth or "great beginning" of the church.

The day of Pentecost is seven weeks after Easter Sunday: that is to say, the fiftieth day after Easter inclusive of Easter Sunday.
