

Genesis 22:1-14 Abraham Tested

22 Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!”

“Here I am,” he replied.

² Then God said, “Take your son, your only son, whom you love—Isaac—and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on a mountain I will show you.”

³ Early the next morning Abraham got up and loaded his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.

⁴ On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. ⁵ He said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.”

⁶ Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, ⁷ Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, “Father?”

“Yes, my son?” Abraham replied.

“The fire and wood are here,” Isaac said, “but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

⁸ Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them went on together.

⁹ When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. ¹⁰ Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. ¹¹ But the angel of the Lord called out to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!”

“Here I am,” he replied.

¹² “Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.”

¹³ Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

¹⁴ So Abraham called that place The Lord Will Provide. And to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the Lord it will be provided.”

Come, let us worship the God who loves us as a perfect Father and whose mercy endures forever.
We come with grateful hearts to worship the Lord.
We give thanks for fathers, grandfathers, mentors, and all who have guided us in faith and love.
We praise God for their witness, sacrifice, and care.
When earthly strength fails, God's strength remains.
The Lord is our refuge and our help in every generation.
Like Abraham, we are called to trust God's promises and walk by faith.
We place our hope in the Lord, who always provides.
Come, let us worship the God who loves us as a perfect Father and whose mercy endures forever.
We will worship the Lord with gladness and enter His presence with praise! Amen.

Did you know... Father's Day officially became a permanent national holiday in the United States on April 24, 1972, when President Richard Nixon signed legislation declaring the third Sunday in June a federal observance. While the first statewide celebration took place in Washington on June 19, 1910, the road to national recognition took decades due to early resistance over fears the day would become too commercialized.

The key milestones along the way included:

- 1924: President Calvin Coolidge offered his public support for the holiday but stopped short of an official proclamation.
- 1966: President Lyndon B. Johnson issued the first presidential proclamation designating the third Sunday in June to honor fathers.
- 1972: President Richard Nixon signed it into permanent law
