God called Israel into the wilderness, but He did not send them alone.
The Lord promised, "I will dwell among you."
When the road was uncertain, God was their guide.
When the journey was difficult, God was their strength.
The tabernacle stood in the midst of the people as a sign of God's presence.
We gather today because God is still in our midst.
We have come with our burdens, our questions, our joys, and our hopes.
We bring them all before the God who sustains us.
Let us remember what the Lord has done and trust Him for what lies ahead.
We will worship the God who brought us this far and will lead us forward.
Church, lift your hearts and voices!
We will worship the Lord with all our hearts! Come, Holy God, dwell among us. Center us in Your presence. Strengthen us through our worship. And lead us faithfully through every wilderness. We worship You because You are our God, and You are with us. Amen.

1 Corinthians 11:23-26
²³ For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for[you. Do this in remembrance of me.” ²⁵ In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remem-brance of me.” ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.
