

Matthew 6:25-34

Do Not Worry

²⁵“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they? ²⁷Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?

²⁸“And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. ²⁹Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. ³⁰If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? ³¹So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ ³²For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. ³³But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

³⁴Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

*Call to Worship:

John Surber

Come, people of God, and lift your eyes to the beauty of creation.

We come to worship the God who clothes the lilies and feeds the birds of the air.

When worry fills our hearts, God reminds us that we are never forgotten.

We will trust the God who knows what we need before we ask. When tomorrow seems uncertain, let us remember that God is already there.

We will not be ruled by fear, but will walk by faith.

Jesus calls us to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.

We will seek God's kingdom above all else.

Come, let us worship the Creator who gives beauty to the earth, grace to our lives, and hope for tomorrow.

We worship the God who provides, sustains, and loves us. Let us worship the Lord! Amen.

In our Chancel Window,
the theme of the first panel
on the right represents God's providence, symbolized
in the miraculous draft of fish in Luke 5:1-7.

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

5 Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ²he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵Simon answered,
"Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." ⁶When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. ⁷So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.
