

1 Peter 4:7-11 niv

⁷The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. ⁸Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. ⁹Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. ¹⁰Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. ¹¹If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.

The SPPRC would like to welcome Bailey Pachta to Belleville FUMC as our Christian Education Coordinator.

Bailey and her husband Hughston and one-year old son live in Cuba, Kansas. Bailey grew up in the Clay Center United Methodist Church. She is a Special Education Preschool Teacher with LCNCK in Washington and Pike Valley and will be available after school and on weekends to be our Christian Ed Coordinator.

Please help us welcome her and her family to the Belleville FUMC family.

Fall Fest -Downtown Belleville

Did you know....

In our Chancel Window,
the theme of the third panel
on the left is the sacredness
of Marriage, as man and woman are united in Christ.

Genesis 2:21-24

²¹So the LORD God caused
a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept;
then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. ²²And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. ²³Then the man said, “This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, or out of Man this one was taken.”

²⁴Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother
and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.
