

Acts 4:23-31 niv The Believers Pray

²³On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. “Sovereign Lord,” they said, “you made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them. ²⁵You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:

““Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

²⁶The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together against the Lord and against his anointed one.’

²⁷Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. ²⁸They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen. ²⁹Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. ³⁰Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

³¹After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.

*Call to Worship:

Come, people of God, and lift your hearts to the Lord.

We come to worship the God who created the heavens and the earth.

When the early church faced opposition, they did not surrender to fear.

They lifted their voices together and prayed.

When the way forward was uncertain, they remembered that God was sovereign.

We trust the God who holds our future in His hands.

When they were threatened, they did not ask only for comfort.

They prayed for courage to proclaim God's Word.

When they were weak, the Holy Spirit gave them strength.

Holy Spirit, fill us and make us bold witnesses for Christ.

When they gathered, they were united in heart and soul.

Make us one in faith, one in love, and one in mission.

When others were in need, they shared what they had.

Make us generous servants who reflect the love of Christ.

Church, let us pray with confidence, worship with joy, and serve with courage.

We are the people of God. We are the body of Christ. We are filled by the Holy Spirit. We will pray together, serve together, and proclaim together that Jesus Christ is risen! Amen.
